Ad-hoc query on recreational activities and leisure equipment in detention (launched by France) - February 2018

All the Member States, apart from Ireland which does not have dedicated immigration detention centres, provide recreational activities for foreign nationals in detention centres.

Sport activities are available, usually scheduled on a daily basis, like football (AT, BE, BG, CZ, EE, FI, DE, EL, HU, LU, MT, PT, SE, UK, NO), basketball (AT, BE, BG, CZ, EL, LV, LU, UK, NO), and fitness (AT, BE, CZ, DE, EE, FI, DE, LT, LV, LU, PT, SE, SK, NO).

Cultural activities are also available such as: painting (AT, EE, LU, PT, UK), cooking (BE, CZ, EE, DE, LU, SE, UK, NO), cinema (CZ, EE, DE, PT), handcrafting (BE, FI, DE, SE) or concerts (NO). Only three countries do not offer cultural activities (LV, MT, PL).

Language classes are available in detention centres of nine Member States (BG, CZ, EE, LU, PL, PT, SK, UK), usually in the national language and in English.

All the Member States provide a leisure room with a television. Twelve Member States (BE, CZ, EE, FI, FR, DE, LV, LT, PL, PT, UK) also offer video games and DVDs. In 14 (Member) States (AT, BE, HR, CZ, EE, FR, DE, LT, LU, MT, PT, SE, UK, NO), foreign nationals in detention can access board games. DE's leisure rooms have the largest equipment with billiards, table football (also in AT, FR and PT) and computers. UK also put at foreign nationals' disposal music instruments.

An internet room is available in 12 (Member) States (BE, CZ, EE, FI, DE, HU, LU, PL, PT, UK, NO) and a library or reading materials in 16 (Member) States (AT, BE, BG, CZ, EE, FI, FR, DE, LV, LT, LU, PL, PT, UK, NO).

All Member States have a courtyard space with sport facilities. Football facilities are the most common (14 Member States), and also basketball (13 Member States) and fitness facilities (11 Member States).

In their room, access to leisure activities like television or radio is possible for detainees of most Member States (AT, BE for isolated detainees, BG, EE, DE, EL, FI in the first centre, FR in one centre, LT, LU, PL, SE, SK, UK, NO) although a few countries do not authorise this access (HR, CZ, FI in the second centre, HU, LV, MT, PT).

In eight Member States (BE, BG, CZ, DE, LU, PL, SE, UK), personal mobile phones without camera (to avoid video recordings) are authorised in order to communicate with the outside world. 10 Member States ban mobile phones (EE, FR, HR, HU, LV, LT, MT, NL, SK and NO).

Ten Member States provide specific activities designed for men and women (BE, HR, EE, LT, PT, SE, SK, UK, NO), in order to respond to detainees' centres of interest.

Specific activities (games) for children are provided in 13 Member States (CZ, EE, FI, FR, EL, HU, LV, LU, PL, SE, SK, NO).

Regarding the management of recreational activities in detention centres, the Member States have adopted different strategies. 10 of them (BE, CZ, DE, EE, MT, PL, SE, UK, NO) have a dedicated staff, employed by the centre. In 12 Member States (BG, CT, CZ, DE, FI, HU, LT, LU, SE, SK, UK, NO), social workers and NGOs are in charge of the leisure activities. In three countries (FR, EL, LV) there is no specific supervision.

3. No, the detainees don't have television or radio in their room, them can in the period of 2 pm to 4 pm take their mobile phone to their room and use the internet. 4. All the detainees have the same premises in order to participate in the activities. Usually the activities are thought according to the characteristics of the group that is currently detained. We try according to the sex and age to match with the tastes and interests of each one. For example, when we have more women, activities can be oriented toward dance, painting, crafts. When there are children we try to make more children's games, bring movies for children and we have a specific room with toys and games for children only. When we have more male detainees, they normally prefer sport, table games, table tennis tournaments, table football, etc. 5. The activities are guided through a NGO- Jesuit Refugee Service (JRS) that has a social worker who stays in the detention center from Monday to Friday and with the help of volunteers and trainees they can keep the activities running at least one per day. However board games, TV, books, table tennis and table football are always available in the morning until 9.30pm. We also have a sports teacher who guides sports activities once a week. Occasionally we also invite some animators to make music workshops or handcrafts according to their availability.

			during spare time, or in the morning and in the afternoon during walks). More information in the attached document. 2. Detainees have access to television in the common TV room. Sports activities focus on exercises on the playground during walks or in designated premises (in a new gym, for example). The visit room in the PDCA Medved'ov is equipped with a computer with internet connection. Detainees have limited access to this computer and can use it only in the presence of the PDCA staff. Persons placed in the PDCA in Sečovce also have limited access to the internet three times a week, in the presence of an NGO worker and PDCA staff. In both PDCAs detainees may use the internet only for searching information; e-mail communication is prohibited. Detainees are helped by social workers while searching information, but only in case it is justified and if approved by the director of the PDCA Sečovce. 3. There is no TV neither internet connection in the accommodation units of the PDCA. Detained TCNs can have a radio powered by batteries or chargeable one, as the voltage in electrical circuits is lowered in accommodation unit to 24V due to security reasons. 220V voltage is only in common spaces, where the TVs are. 4. In the PDCA Sečovce, cultural and leisure activities of detained minors accompanied by their legal representatives are provided in the game room located within the accommodation premises for families with children or in the gym equipped with sports tools, where detained minors can do sports activities also during bad weather. During good weather conditions minors can use the outdoor children's playground. The social worker organises also specific activities depending on gender (e.g. make-up training courses for women). 5. Activities for minors as well as adults are the responsibility of social workers. They plan and adjust educational, recreational and gaming activities for minors in the facility while cooperating with the NGO, mainly for the purpose of social and psychological counselling and caretaking, with a specific emphasis on the care for vulnerable groups. They also cooperate secondarily during the educational and training activities carried out by teacher/tutor, employee of the NGO. These and other activities respect the needs and age of the persons.

	Sweden	Yes	1. There are local differences between the different detention centres but in all detention centres there are possibility for table tennis, internet, board games and books. In addition to these activities other activities, such as for example yoga, physical training, baking and easier cooking, are arranged by staff based on their interests. 2. There is a leisure room in each ward that is available around the clock. There is also access to a gym room with workout equipment during most of the day, but it is normally closed during the night. There is also a possibility to play TV-games in a designated room. There is a walking yard available at least three hours a day and in the yard there is possibility to play basket or volleyball. In the yard there is also benches and most often a possibility to play football. 3. The standard has since a long time been that there is TV in the leisure rooms. Since a year there is a pilot project with TV in the sleeping rooms in order to see whether will create a calmer atmosphere. So far, the pilot has been successful which will probably mean that we will install TV in the sleeping rooms when building new detention centres. 4. There are few children in detention. If there are children in the detention centre arrangements will be made so the child can play with toys. Apart from that the arranged activities are due to demand, meaning that proposals can be made and/or activities that have been popular before can be arranged. 5. Each detention centre has staff with dedicated responsibility for recreation. Their background and education differs, it is their own interests and ability to carry out the activities that are of importance. NGOs often have activities or performances, but this is based on their abilities and interests. Musicians are frequent and popular. Staff that have own abilities or competences, such as physical training, music or handicraft, are encouraged to carry out these as a part of the social interaction.

			3. Immigration removal centres provide televisions in most rooms. It is open to detainees to use their own radios. Internet access is not available in detainee bedrooms, but is available daily in the centre IT suites. 4. Each immigration removal centre organises activities on the basis of the changing population in detention at any one time. In immigration removal centres with a single gender population detainees come together for activities. In centres with a mixed gender population men and women do not participate in joint activities. Families who are detained in in the pre-departure accommodation undertake all activities within that accommodation. Voluntary paid activities are also provided. 5. Activities in immigration removal centres are supervised by detainee custody officers (DCOs) who are employees of the contractor operating the centre on behalf of the Home Office. There are a limited number of outside organisations who provide activities at individual centres.
	Norway	Yes	1. See attached table. During wintertime: indoor-activities are most common. We have an Activity Center where it is possible to enjoy the following activities: basketball, soccer, table tennis, cooking and exercise spinning bikes. In addition, we also have a small gym.
